WRITE

Develop a game board.

Create game pieces, instructions, and get ready for the fun to happen!

Playlist

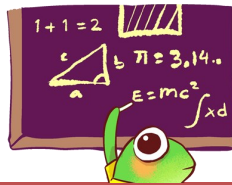

Choose a frog, and put together a list of songs you know that they would love.

Memoir

Write a memoir for one of the frogs of the story when they are reflecting on who they showed kindness to.

Create a Lesson Plan

Pick an essential idea another student should learn about acts of kindness

What Pond Are You From?

Using character traits, quotes, and evidence from the parable to decide what frog you are most like. You can do this through words, or a visual representation

Alternate Ending

Write a different ending for The Orange Frog than the one that you read.

Scrapbooking

Develop a scrapbook page for the frogs of the parable. Choose one of their memorable moments and depict it. Use images, fun fonts, and words.

Research

Look at a different version of The Orange Frog and determine where Kindness is present in the text

Acting

Write a dialogue between two people (or frogs) that depicts the premise of kindness.

On the Web

Develop a web quest based on the kindness. Use the definition of the word, celebrities who practice it, etc

Your Superstar

Who in your life is the best shining example of kindness? What are specific examples of how they use it?

Your Interpretation

Write what you would have said for the thoughts section of the tactic in The Orange Frog lesson plan.
